

Runaway: Their Moment in Time

By Kathleen Cook Huebbe

Brighton Publishing LLC, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When Christopher-known to his friends as Topher -receives a letter in the mail twenty-two years after his high school graduation inviting him back to The Oasis, he knows it s the beginning of a journey through some very tender memories. He returns to his parents garage with trepidation, as he forces himself to encounter the one thing he has always avoided.those memories: It was their senior year of high school. A year of fun, friendships, hot rod cars, racing, and spending time together at their favorite hangout-The Oasis. And it was also their moment. .their moment in time. Although the group of friends had grown up together in a small town in Southern California in the 80s, they are constantly reminded of an era-gone-by at their 1950 s-style diner hangout, The Oasis. Curious about the pictures on the walls and the atmosphere of the diner, they want to know more about that bygone era. Runaway, the non-quintessential girl of the group, is especially curious about the cars and racing, and takes on an early role as...
